NEGOTIATIONS IN ARMS CONFERENCE SHOW GREAT IMPETUS

Lots of "Pep" is Shown After a Five Day New Year's Breathing Space—The Shantung Controversy is Near Conclusion—Naval Limitation Plan is Being Worked Out

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—After a five day New Year's breathing space, the arms negotiations were resumed today with an impetus that swept some of the most troublesome problems of the conference almost to the point of discussion.

Foremost among the separate discussions which appeared tonight to be approaching a conclusion was the controversy between the Japanese and Chinese over Shantung. It was indicated that the conversations might end tomorrow one way or the other, and the predominating belief was that the result would be an agreement rather than a final deadlock.

A final agreement also was in sight on the question of a revised Chinese tariff. After a long argument the tariff sub-committee came together on a proposal to increase China's tariff schedules under an international commission plan and the far eastern committee of the whole is expected to ratify the decision tomorrow.

Among the naval experts, so much progress was made with technical details of the naval limitation plan that in some quarters it was declared final disposition of the subject was only a question of hours.

Precise regulations for scrapping ships and details of replacement were numbered among the day's agreements in the naval sub committee.

On the question of submarine regulations which has waited on further advices from the foreign capitals, Japan contributed another step toward decision by accepting in principle the Root resolutions proposing to outlaw the use of submarines against merchant vessels and to make violations of submarine regulations acts of piracy. Italy alone remains to accept the propositions and a discussion by the full naval committee may take place late tomorrow.

At tomorrow's meeting of the far eastern committee however, new troubles may be encountered thru China's request that the famous twenty one demands, be brought up for conference discussion. A protest was lodged by Japan just before the last meeting of the committee adjourned and a stubborn debate is expected by some delegates.

In some quarters also, considerable discussion is believed likely before there is a definite decision on the Root submarine proposals.

Meantime the American advisory committee met and canvassed opinion on the submarine question.

Members said a survey of editorial comment and public opinion generally convinced them that the American people strongly desired that submarine operations be brought within the considerations of humane warfare.

ANTI-LYNCHING BILL IS UP FOR DEBATE IN HOUSE

Democrats Start Filibuster to Stop Debate

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Debate on the Dyer anti-lynching bill started today in the house despite a determined filibuster on the part of democratic opponents of the measure.

Three hours were spent in roll calls demanded by Representative Garrett, Tennessee, democratic leader, in a futile attempt to head off discussion. Half of that time later was given over to debate by Representative Dyer, republican, Missouri, author of the bill, and Representative Sumners, democrat, Texas, one of the leaders of the fight against it, who reiterated arguments advanced by them in the majority and minority views of judiciary committee members when the bill was favorably reported.

The measure is to be set aside tomorrow for consideration of the treasury appropriation bill which will have right of way until it is sent to the senate. Representative Mondell, republican leader, in a statement today, predicted a vote in the near future on the Dyer bill, but stated that debate on it will be interspersed between various appropriation bills. Mr. Dyer, in opening debate on his measure, declared it was imperative that the federal government afford protection to persons liable to suffer violence at the hands of mobs.

Mr. Sumners declared passage of the bill would increase rather than decrease mob violence and would have a tendency to engender race hatred.

INDUSTRIAL TRAFFIC LEAGUE WILL MEET

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 4—A special meeting of the national industrial traffic league is to be called in Washington, Jan. 27, at which time the report of the legislative committee on prospective and desired changes in the transportation law will be considered. The general rate inquiry of the interstate commerce commission which will be resumed Jan. 11 is also scheduled for discussion.

J. H. Beek, secretary of the league in Chicago commenting on the commisssion inquiry today said:

"The rate reductions which had been made since April 26, 1920 have been largely for the benefit of specific commodities. When the rates were advanced they were advanced on a percentage basis.

"If the rates are now to be reduced we believe they should be reduced in a similiar manner."

The national industrial traffic league is said to represent approximately seventy five percent of the tonnage of the country.

Government Will Take up Henry Ford Offer January 11

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4—Negotiations involved in the offer of Henry Ford for purchase and lease of the Muscle Shoals, Ala., nitrate and power projects, which have been at a standstill for several weeks, will be resumed Jan. 11.

J. W. Worthington, one of Mr. Ford's engineers, advised Secretary Weeks today that either Mr. Ford or his authorized agents would be in Washington on that date to continue the negotiations.

The word given by Mr. Worthington was received by Mr. Weeks just after the secretary had finished dictating a letter to Mr. Ford expressing the wish that the negotiations could be resumed without further delay and after Senator Underwood of Alabama, had called at the war department to request that action looking toward disposition of the projects be expedited.

The offer of C. C. Tinkler of San Francisco, head of the Construction Company of North America, will be laid before the war secretary in the meantime.

SENATE FACTIONS GIRD THEMSELVES FOR FINAL FIGHT

Will Vote on Newberry Resolution Next Week

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Senate factions today girded themselves for the final fight in the Ford-Newberry senatorial election contest from Michigan. The case will be taken up Friday and a vote on the resolution declaring Truman H. Newberry, the Republican incubent the legally elected senator will be taken next week.

His colleague Senator Townsend, Republican, Michigan, announced today that he would speak Saturday. Mr. Townsend also informed the Kalamazoo, Michigan, league of women voters he would support Mr. Newberry. A close vote with present indications favoring Senator Newberry, is conceded generally by senate leaders. Mr. Newberry's supporters expect a majority of from three to seven votes, altho a half dozen Republicans still are listed as doubtful with their action said to depend in part on whether Senator Newberry decides to speak in his own right.

Some close friends of the senator's today said he would come here and speak probably next week.

Senators Curtis of Kansas and Wadsworth of New York both Republicans and the former the Republican whip responded with a denial that "the administration has had or is going to have anything to do with the appointment of new Pennsylvania senator."

Senator King, Democrat, Utah, inquired whether the appointee from Pennsylvania could be regarded as a competent judge in the Newberry controversy since he would hardly have time to take the oath of office before he would have to vote.

Attacks Appointments

Mr. King also put into the record a letter from a correspondent in Michigan which asserted that the president was "rewarding" some of those who had taken part in the Newberry campaign with federal appointments.

The senator named four men, who, he said, were linked with the Newberry campaign machinery and declared if they have not been confirmed by the senate they will run into a "peck of trouble," before the senate confirms them. The men named in the letter were Earl Davis, recently appointed United States attorney for the eastern district of Michigan; James R. Davis, appointed prohibition officer for the state; Fred Cronenwett, division prohibition officer at Grand Rapids, and Edward J. Bowman, United States attorney for the Grand Rapids district.

Altho the Ford-Newberry election contest will be taken up Friday, under the senate's previous agreement debate would be unlimited until Monday after which all speeches will be limited to an hour.

In the absence of Senator Newberry his friends are watching events in the senate while Alfred Lucking, of counsel and other friends are acting as observers for Henry Ford, the Democratic contestant.

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS INDUSTRY TO BE INVESTIGATED

Resolution is Presented by Senator Kenyon of Iowa

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4—Investigation by the federal trade commission of the house-furnishing goods industry, was directed in a resolution adopted late today by the senate. The resolution sponsored by Senator Kenyon, republican, Iowa, provides that the inquiry shall embrace the causes of factory, wholesale and retail price conditions in the industry.

There was no record vote on the resolution.

The debate, which preceded its adoption, was characterized by a general attack on profiteers, trusts and combinations in restraint of trade, and scattering assaults on the federal trade commission. The latter was defended, however, by several senators who contended that it could never be a popular government agency, because of the nature of its work. Prosecuting officers of the state governments were assailed by Mr. King, and Senator Helfin, democrat, Alabama, who declared these officials appeared to have made no effort to check combinations and trusts within the state which could not be reached by federal authority.

Senator Norris, Nebraska, charged that these combinations were doing business at the "old stand" since the war and that little, if any, attention had been given them by either state or federal officials. Discussing the federal trade commission, the Nebraska senator said that with prosecuting officers failing to prosecute and courts failing to convict, the only remedy which seems open to the people is the exertion of the pressure of public opinion.

Senator Nelson, republican, Minnesota, said he had "little if any faith" in the results of an inquiry by the commission.

An attempt was made by Mr. Heflin to amend the resolution to include the operations of the Chicago grain exchange and the New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges, but this was withdrawn, when Senator Wadsworth, republican, New York, announced he would block the resolution if the amendment was pressed. He objected, he said, to another investigation before the print in the report of one inquiry of the same kind, had got cold.

Monetary damage in Turley is estimated at $7,000 or $8,000.

CONFERENCE ON AGRICULTURE TO MEET JANUARY 23

Expect to Announce the List Of Delegates Soon

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The national agricultural conference, suggested several days ago by President Harding to consider means of relieving distress among the farmers was called tonight by Secretary Wallace to meet in Washington January 23. The agriculture secretary in announcing the call said it was expected that Mr. Harding would open the conference. Invitations to persons selected to compromise the personnel of the gathering, it was said, are being sent out daily and announcemnt of the list of delegates will be sent out soon.

Secretary Wallace has not fixed a limit to the number of delegates but is concerned chiefly with making sure that the conference will be thoroly representative. The number of delegates it was indicated will be between 250 and 300. The secretary it was learned, is making up the personnel, not only from agricultural interests but also those interests which are intimately associated with agriculture in the transportation, marketing and distributing of farm products.

It is expected that a small number of men who will be generally accepted as representing the public will also be invited.

Scope Wille Be Wide

The wide scope of the conference concerns the business of the country generally as well as the farmers, department of agriculture officials emphasized.

In seeking remedial measures to relieve the present distress of the agricultural classes they said, the conference would be seeking to restore the buying power of the agriculturalists which would make for a general revival of business.

Laying down of a policy to be followed by the federal and state governments and farmers themselves in building a permanent self-sustaining agriculture is expected to be of even greater importance to the conference than seeking remedial measures for the present farm situation altho the latter will probably be given first consideration it was said. The delegates will meet it was indicated, and map out their own program of procedure and work. They are expected, however, to divide themselves into committees along the lines of production, transportation, marketing, and financing and these in turn to name sub-committees of the various crops as corn, wheat, cotton, tobacco and fruit.

EAMONN DEVALERA MAKES PROPOSALS KNOWN YESTERDAY

Are Given Out When the Dail Eireann Adjourned

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Jan. 4.—Eamonn De Valera, when the Dail Eireann rose this evening, produced for the first time publicly his alternative proposals to the Irish treaty. A fortnight ago he was asked by Arthur Griffith to publish them and Mr. Griffith repeated his challenge at today's debate.

Mr. De Valera's original idea, as announced by himself, was to move his alternative proposals in the event of the rejection of the treaty. But he changed his mind, and now intends, if he is permitted, to move them as an amendment to the resolution approving the treaty.

The document was issued to the press, accompanied by an appeal by Mr. De Valera in a manifesto addresed to the Irish people, urging them not to be stampeded in the support of the treaty, which would not bring peace.

The document as issued differs, according to Mr. Griffith from the document submitted in the private sessions of the Dail Eireann. It follows the main outline of the treaty made at the Downing street residence of the British prime minster and signed by Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins and the other plenipotentiaries but implies, Mr. De Valera contends, a fundamental difference in principle. It asserts that the sole source of authority in Ireland rests with the Irish people while the treaty, it is argued, it is derived thru the king.

Mr. De Valera's plan contains no oath of allegiance, but admits recognition of his Britannic majesty as head of the association of states in the British commonwealth, with which Ireland externally associates itself.

The debate today revealed the presence of at least three parties in the Dail Eireann—the supporters of the treaty made in London, the supporters of Mr. De Valera and his alternative proposales and some inactive republicans opposed to both sets of proposals.

Vigorous speeches were made for and against the treaty, but at the conclusion of the session there was no indication of any change in the sentiment of the members and best informed opinion continues to incline to the belief that the treaty will be approved by a small majority.

GENERAL MOTORS OMITS DIVIDEND ON COMMON STOCK

Pay on Their Preferred Stock And Debenture Bonds

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Directors of the General Motors corporation late today voted to omit the quarterly dividend of twenty-five cents a share on common stock, due at this time.

The directors authorized the regular quarterly dividends of $1.50 on preferred stock, $1.50 on six per cent debenture bonds and $1.75 on seven per cent debenture bonds, payable Feb. 1 to stockholders of record Jan. 14.

Of the corporation's 50,000,000 shares of common stock carrying no par value, only 20,646,397 shares are outstanding. On these today's dividend ommission saved the company more than $5,000,000 and if the ommission were continued for a year more than $20,000,000 would accrue.

Wall street apparently expected the passing for General Motors was offered in single lots up to 10,000 shares at a low record of 8 3-4. The stock, however, rallied with the general list at the losing.

Altho carrying no par value, the common was placed on a cash and stock dividend basis in March, 1920, with quarterly disbursements of twenty-five cents a share cash and one-fortieth of a share stock. In December, 1920, stock dividends were discontinued.

Pierre Du Pont, president of the corporation, issued a statement after today's meeting, which followed the close of the market, asserting the action on cash dividends had been taken not only to strengthen the corporation's position but also to maintain the investment character of its debenture and preferred stock.

DRAMATIC SCENES MARK HEARING ON ILLEGAL HANGINGS

Accuser and Accused Face Each Other—Two Former Service Men Testify That Major Opie Shot Down His Men at the Front—Opie Makes An Emphatic Denial of Charge

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Accuser and accused in dramatic fashion faced each other today before a senate committee investigating charges that American soldiers had been hanged without trial in France.

Near the close of a seven hour session Major Hierome L. Opie, of Staunton, Virginia, commander of the third battalion, 116th Infantry overseas, went on the stand to enter emphatic denial of charges by former service men that he had shot down some of his own soldiers in cold blood on the battlefield. He was asked, however, to step aside until other witnesses then in the room could testify against him, meanwhile being given the right thru counsel to cross-examine them.

Grayson H. Withrow of Baltimore, still in his early twenties, testified that he saw the officer seize a gun from a private and fire at a man in his command. Shells were falling overhead, he said, and there was tremendous excitement, but Withrow swore that from his retreat in a shell hole he peeped out and saw the man fall as the major's gun barked.

William F. St. John, a young man from Lynchburg, Va., suffering from nervous troubles resulting from service overseas, accused the Virginian of shooting down a "runner" at the front because he failed to heed after thrice being ordered to halt. Four other men saw the killing, he declared, but he refused of his own accord to give their names.

Reminded by Chairman Brandegee that the names must be submitted, St. John complied, mentioning first the cousin of one of Major Opie's counsel, sitting across the table. While St. John was being cross-examined by John A. Cutchins, of Richmond, Va., Major Opie's counsel, he lost control of his shattered nerves and dramatically shouted that he was dealing with a "bunch of fanatics who are trying to prove I am nutty."

Mr. Cutchins promptly disclaimed such an intention.

Seeing that the young man was worn out by excitement, Senator Watson, democrat, Georgia, whose charges of illegal executions are under investigation, declined to question him.

Tomorrow Major Opie will testify in his own behalf.

Starting out with the testimony of Rufus P. Hubbard, of New York, who acted as an embalming assistant with the American graves registration service, declared he found a noose and a black cap on the bodies of three American soldiers dug up in the little French cemetery at Basoilles the committee permitted the inquiry to run its course. Right after the testimony of Hubbard another witness who assisted in a legal execution, declared that the body was buried noose and black cap intact in the same cemetery where Hubbard said three so marked had been found. There was much testimony relating to executions at Issurtille none of the witnesses being able to say whether the victims had been tried, beyond the claim of some to the contrary as the trap was sprung.

War department records, containing the list of eleven legal hangings, listed two at Issurtille.

PLENTY OF LIQUOR IS STILL LEFT

Washington, Jan. 4.—Approximately 38,000,000 gallons of whiskey are stored in warehouses thruout the country according to testimony of Millard F. West, deputy commissioner of internal revenue at recent legislative hearings of the house appropriations committee on the treasury appropriation bill, verbatim reports of which were made available today. The reports also showed Mr. West estimated that on July 1, last, there were in distilleries and general bond warehouses 39,961,000 gallons of whiskey, 399,000 gallons of rum, 885,000 gallons of gin, 2,170 gallons of high wines, 640,946 gallons of alcohol and 369,000 gallons of neutral or cologne spirits, a total of 42,500,000 gallons.

FORMER PROHI OFFICIAL HAS BEEN INDICTED

Charge Comes Thru Alleged Liquor Withdrawals

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Jan. 4—A bombshell was exploded today in New York federal prohibition headquarters.

Breaking of the seals on a secret indictment returned some weeks ago by the federal grand jury investigating enforcement of the Volstead act in this city revealed the fact that Harold L. Hart, a prominent Binghampton attorney who formerly served as federal prohibition director for the state of New York headed a list of a score of defendants charged with conspiracy to defraud the government thru liquor withdrawals.

Immeadiately public attention focused on poison liquor consumed during the holidays which today claimed its nineteenth victim, switched to the flood of real alcoholics which were alleged to have been loosed thru putative fake drug concerns.

Indicted with Hart were two other high enforcement officials, three politicians and a number of the "drug concerns and their officers."

The list of defendants included Thomas Reddy, formerly allied with the postoffice department and the department of justice and who later served as Hart's assistant before the latter's resignation last fall.

WE SHOULD WORRY WHAT SOVIET THINKS

(By The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Jan. 4—Soviet Russian newspapers almost universally regarded the appropriation of $20,000,000 by the American Congress to relieve famine conditions in Russia as primarily a political or economic, rather than a humanitarian move.

While denouncing America as capitalistic and bourgeois, most of the newspapers express eagerness for recognition of the soviet government which they regard as a likely possibility within a short time, because of the activities of Senators Borah and France and other American political leaders. Russia and America are generally discussed in the press as republics representing the most extreme socialistic and capitalistic views and further removed from each other in governmental principles, but best adapted to cooperate because they do not clash economically and politically.

The trouble with an appropriation ordinance is that it indicates that a city has four or five more times the amount of money available from taxation than is really the case. The custom is to appropriate a considerable fund for each department of municipal government to provide for emergencies, since money cannot be spent in a department unless appropriation has been legally made.

It is likely that final disposition will soon be made of the Senator Newberry case as he has made his defense before the committee appointed to pass upon his rights. No matter what the finding, the people at large will be mighty glad when the Newberry case passes into histoy.

Poople who read and think can not but be impressed with the unusual procedure with reference to all of the suits against state officials or their bondsmen. The idea of the prosecution seems to be to give as much publicity as possible to the cases—that is, to the general charges made. The action indicates something more than the desire to recover moneys for the state. The paths of politics are certainly devious.

Unless Postmaster General Hayes is a very wealthy man who can blame him for accepting the $150,000 a year salary offer of the movie men. His resignation will mean a loss to the administration, since the postmaster general has already made great strides toward the betterment of his department. But the resignation need not necessarily cripple the administration, for there are certainly other good men capable of filling this important post efficiently. And Mr. Harding seems to have the faculty of choosing competent men.

The abolishment of the 8 per cent tax on railroad fares and sleeping car tickets will help some. However, the saving from a local standpoint would be more significant if the surtax of 50 per cent on Pullman berths had also been abolished. This surtax, however, is not a matter of internal revenue rulings, for it was put into effect when the railroads were under government control and provision made that the surtax go to the railroads and not to the Pullman Co.

Cancellation of this surtax would be a relief and would bring the price of Pullman service down to its real worth.

The Chicago bank merger had a disturbing influence on business, as shown by the drop in the markets on the day following announcement of the merger. But there is cause for great satisfaction in considering the manner in which the situation was handled and the evident determination of the big financial interests of Chicago to see to it that no great disturbance resulted.

True, that action may have been taken in part from a selfish standpoint, knowing that a crash would cause at least a near panic. But the fact remains that the methods used in handling the difficult situation prove amply that the day of panics is past and that great financial institutions will give each other moral and financial support when the need becomes acute.

The Landis decision in the labor difficulties in Chicago was not as effective as his rulings in the baseball world—more's the pity. Now strikes have been called by several unions and the indications are for a fight to the finish. Not long since Chicago business men organized a corporation having for its purpose the enforcement of the Landis wage decision. This corporation assures protection to contractors and workers who are willing to abide by the decision.

With so much work in prospect it is certainly an unfortunate thing not only for Chicago but thruout a much wider area that the contractors and workmen who agreed to abide by the Landis finding did not make good on their promises.

WOULD BALANCE UP COMMUNITIES

The present big problem that is facing so many of the smaller communities of Illinois, according to Harvey T. Hill, secretary of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, is the "unbalanced community." In these smaller towns there may be a factory which employs women, for instance, but in which there is no place for the adequate employment of men. Or, on the other hand, there may be work for the men, as in mining towns, but no place for the sons and daughters of the miners. There is not that symmetrical industrial devolopment which enables the proper development of all parts of the population.

"Minor cities in Illinois," explained Mr. Hill, "make no development frequently because only one-half or one-third of the population can be producers. They must support the remainder of the population. The others must remain in enforced idleness.

"This condition of unbalanced communities forms a problem for many states. The Illinois Chamber of Commerce intends to take up the settlement of the problem in a big way."

The plan is to build up these communities.

Mr. Hill is preparing booklets giving in detail the industrial opportunities in each city in the state where there is an unbalanced industrial situation.

THE HIGH COST OF MINUTES

The most costly thing a merchant handles in his store, or has anything to do with, is time—minutes, hours, weeks and months. This is the broad statement in a recent circular by the Levy Printing company, Indianapolis, Ind., and substantiated by the following argument, as presented by the Manufacturers' News:

Suppose the dealer's average annual expense is twenty per cent of the sales. Suppose he buys a flying machine for $5,000 and sells it for $10,000. Will be make a profit over his twenty per cent expenses? If he sells it wihtin a year, yes. He will take off $2,000 for expense and have $3,000 left for profit. But suppose it is five years before he sells the plane. Expenses are twenty per cent for each one of the five years, or one hundred per cent for the period. He has used up the whole $10,000 he got for it, and is out the $5,000 he paid for the machine. All because of the time it took to turn the investment into money.

Suppose he had bought instead of a flying machine $5,000 worth of articles that would sell rapidly—in a short time—for only $7,000. If expenses were still twenty per cent, or $1,400, the profit would be only $600. But if he sold this amount over ten times in a year, he would get $6,000 profit.

Thus speeding up the time increases the real profit, altho the margin is much smaller.

Therein appears the surest way to work out a profit when the cost of goods and selling price are pretty firmly fixed by causes beyond our control.

By turning its capital three times a year a seven per cent net a year business makes more money than by turning it twice at ten per cent net.

JACKSONVILLE HIGH PLAYS TWO GAMES

Meets Waverly Friday and Springfield Saturday—Locals Look for Hard Battles in Both Contests

Coach Mitchell's Jacksonville high school five has two hard games this week. The first is Friday night when Waverly high plays here. The second is with Springfield high also on the local floor which gives local fans assurance of two good contests.

Friday night Coach Hufford's Waverly high five will make its appearance. While Coach Hufford had to begin with practically all new material this year, most of the old basketball men finishing school last spring, his men are fighters and will put up a hard battle.

There is always intense rivalry between Jacksonville and Waverly. Both teams play a little bit better against each other than against other teams because of this rivalry. Jacksonville will have the advantage on Waverly in experience and in the matter of victories won but are not looking for any easy thing in the Waverly contest.

Saturday night Springfield high comes. Last year Springfield defeated the local five on the Springfield floor and later eliminated the locals from the district tournament in the first game, the capital city lads then going on thru and winning the tournament.

This year Springfield has several men who played on the team of a year ago. However, Coach Mitchell's men are going to try to avenge the defeats of last year and will battle Springfield from the first to the last whistle. If Jacksonville shows the same speed and fight she has so far this year she should take Springfield into camp. Coach R. E. Harmon will offciate in both games.

MORE INCOME TAX FACTS EXPLAINED

Matter of Personal Exemption the Cause of Frequent Injury—Present Law Saw Changes.

The Revenue Act of 1921 contains two new and important provisions, which are the subject of frequent inquiry. The first relates to the personal exemptions allowed married persons, and the second to the provision requiring that a return be made of gross income of $5,000 or more.

The act provides that a married person, living with husband or wife, whose net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less shall be allowed a personal exemption of $2,500. If the net income of such person was over $5,000 the exemption is $2,000. Under the Revenue Act of 1918 the personal exemption allowed a married person was $2,000, regardless of the amount of net income. The normal tax rate remains unchanged, 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income.

In order that an income slightly in excess of $5,000 shall not be subjected to an inordinately disproportionate tax because of the reduction of the exemption to $2,000 thereon, the law provides that such reduction shall not operate to increase the tax, which would be payable if the exemption were $2,500, by more than the amount of the net income in excess of $5,000.

For example, on a net income of $5,010, the tax, without this saving clause, would be $120.40, which is 4 per cent on $3,010, the amount of net income less the exemption of $2,000. The actual tax is $10.40, computed as follows: from the net income of $5,010 is deducted $2,500, leaving $2,510, the 4 per cent tax on which amounts to $100.40. To this is added $10, "The amount of net income in excess of $5,000."

The personal exemptions allowed married persons, apply also to the head of a family, a person who supports in one household one or more relatives by blood, marriage or adoption.

Heretofore, a person whose net income was less than his exemption ($1,000 if single, or $2,000 if married) was not required to file a return. Under the Revenue Act of 1921, if the gross income of an individual equalled or exceeded $5,000, or if the combined gross income of a married couple and that of dependent minor children equalled or exceeded $5,000, a return must be filed, regardless of the amount of net income.

"Net income" is gross income, less certain deductions. The fact that allowable deductions from gross income, for business expenses, losses, bad debts, etc. may reduce the net income to an amount below the personal exemptions of $1,000 or $2,000, does not alter the requirement to file a return of gross income, if such gross income equalled or exceeded $5,000.

Policy Meets Approval

At the very beginning our policy was to render a perfect service at the lowest possible cost.

After one year of my business career, I found the public had faith in my statements.

I have not entered the undertaking profession to see how quick I can become rich from your misfortunes, and with this purpose ever in mind I shall maintain the right prices regardless of others.

Judging from the position I have gained after one year, my policy of conducting my business meets with your approval. Without it I could not have met with success. I shall continue to protect my clients at all times from unjust charges.

MEMBERS OF WEDDING PARTY DINNER GUESTS

Dinner Party Given Last Evening for Williamson-Alcott Wedding Party.

The last of the numerous prenuptial events for Miss Helen Allcott and Harlan Williamson was the bridal dinner given last evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Martha Allcott, 1030 West College avenue. The guests were the ten attendants, the soloists and a number of out-of-town relatives of the young people.

The Allcott home had been very prettily decorated for last night's event. In the dining room pink Columbia roses and white sweet peas were used with charming effect, pink and white candles lending a soft radiance to the room. The dinner menu was an elaborate one and the event was one of the most pleasant of those given in honor of these well known young people.

The guests last night were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Upham of Des Moines, Mr. and Mrs. W. Barr Brown, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Gregory, Mrs. O. F. Stanbro and Miss Dorothy Stanbro, Keokuk, Ia.; Misses Wilma Williamson, Pauline McMurphy, Esther Davis and Eleanor Master; Messrs. William Allcott of Des Moines, Ia.; Myron Edgeworth of Kankakee, William DeBolt, William Floreth, William Berryman, of this city and Walter Beadles of Oklahoma City, Okla., a cousin of the bride.

The marriage of Miss Allcott and Mr. Williamson is to be solemnized this evening.

The men and women under the instruction of Mrs. C. O. Swift are studying the mission book entitled, "Why and How of Foreign Missions." The pastor, Rev. A. P. Howells, is teaching the young people the contents of the mission book, "Playing Square With the World." The intermediates are enjoying the instruction of Miss Carrie Spires who is teaching from the text book, "Making Life Count." "World Friendship, Inc." is the title of the book being taught to the World Wide Guild by Miss Caroline Abbott.

The total attendance at both sessions on last Sunday reached 241. Several novel features are occuring at the evening service. On next Sunday the theme will be, "A Song Story of a City Mission," at which Mrs. Wilder and Miss Turner will sing. U., in which "Mr. American Christian," is indicted and tried before a jury, found guilty and given a sentence that will be startling to the large audience that will be expected to fill the court room at the church.

WHAT'S WRONG WTH THE WORLD?

This Famous Lecture Will Be Delivered by Pete W. Collins Here January 15—Under Direction of Knights of Columbus—No Admission Fee Charged.

Peter W. Collins of Boston, the man who has answered a million questions, will arrive in Jacksonville on Jan. 15 to deliver, under the auspices of Jacksonville Council, Knights of Columbus, his lecture "What's Wrong With the World?"

As an anti-radicalism lecturer, campaigning under the direction of the K. of C. Supreme Board of Directors for the past decade, Collins has established the world's record for answering questions in the open forums always held at the conclusion of his lectures. Grand Knight L. J. Flood announces that the lecture will be entirely free to the public and that any of Mr. Collins' hearers is entitled to ask whatever question he or she deems pertinent to the subject of the lecture.

Mr. Collins is one of a corps of experts in the sociological and economic field carrying an educational campaign against organized radicalism under the auspices of the K. of C. He is one of the best equipped authorities on industrial relations in America, having served for years as a trade union official. In 1917, the U. S. government enlisted Collins as one of its industrial experts and in 1918 he undertook the direction of the K. of C. reconstruction and employment sysetem which found jobs in civilian life for more than 300,000 former service men without a cent of cost to either employed or employer.

In his lecture Mr. Collins will deal with the potentialities for social disorders in the world, and especially in America today, and define the forces that can successfully counteract the organized effort to disrupt the present social status. His experience as a labor leader has equipped him with an intimate knowledge of the labor side of industrial disputes and his professional contact with employers enables him to understand thoroughly their viewpoint.

Wherever Mr. Collins has lectured during his years of service with the K. of C., press and public of all politics and creeds have agreed that his message of common sense in capital and labor disputes and unwavering opposition to bolshevik doctrinaires has contributed largely to a clear understanding of the multiple industrial and economic problems that confront the world today.

K. OF P. 376 Thirteenth Annual Roll Call tonight. Banquet at 6 o'clock. Second table at 6:45 o'clock. Grand Chancellor Whitlock will be present. All Knights invited.

PRATT FUNERAL AT WHITE HALL TODAY

Remains of Late Mrs. J. J. Pratt to be Laid to Rest This Afternoon—Deceased Was Long Time Resident of Greene Co.

White Hall, Jan. 4.—Funeral services for the late Mrs. John J. Patt will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the White Hall Baptist church. Interment will be in the White Hall cemetery.

Agnes McLean Pratt, wife of John J. Pratt, passed away at 9:45 p. m. Tuesday evening at the family home, one mile north of White Hall, after a prolonged illness.

She was the fifth child of Samuel and Jennie McLean, and was born near Belfast, Ireland, April 25, 1846. She, with her parents, came to this country in 1866, and lived the first two years in Nashville, Washington County, Ill.

Later she came to Greene county, and February 7th, 1878 was united in marriage to John J. Pratt at Greenfield, Ill.

Besides her beloved husband, she leaves four living children as follows: David T., Athensville vicinity, James R., White Hall, Paul L., White Hall, and Jennie M., wife of Clinton C. Aydelott, Maplewood, Mo. One grown son, John G. Pratt, and an infant daughter preceded her in death. There are also four grandchildren. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: William John, of McCune, Kansas, Jennie of Belfast, Ireland, Sarah of Westerly, R. I., Margaret of St. Louis, Samuel of Claybourne, Wy., and Robert and James, both of Jerseyville, Ill.

She was a faithful member of the Baptist church, having given her life to Jesus many years ago. During the forty odd years of her married life she was ever a faithful helpmate and companion, and a tender and loving mother. Her family and friends will sorrow at her passing, but find a wonderful comfort in the thought that a brave and cheerful spirit has passed to the great beyond where there is no suffering and pain.

The sale of real estate advertised by us for January 7th is postponed until February 4th, 1922 See advertisement.

ALLIANCE ONLY WAY OF KEEPING ENTENTE INTACT

George and Briand Continue Their Conversations

(By The Associated Press)

CANNES, Jan. 4—With the air full of talk of an alliance between France and Great Britian as the only means of keeping the entente intact, Premier Briand and Prime Minister Lloyd George today resumed their conversations which were began some days ago in London.

"The conversations are continuing," was the only comment the French premier would make after a two hours' talk with Mr. Lloyd George this afternoon.

General reticence is being observed by the principals of the British delegation.

Premier Briand said this afternoon the policy of France all along had been to strengthen her ties with her allies, since this seemed essential to a settlement of European problems.

Members of both the French and British delegations are agreed that the situation is grave and that the entente powers must come closer together or they will drift more widely apart. The difference of opinion appears to center around the question of who ought to make the concessions necessary to bring about closer accord. The atmosphere thruout the day was generally pessimistic.

APPELLATE COURT FINDINGS MADE

Information was received here yesterday that the appellate court had affirmed the decision of the Morgan county circuit court in the case of Arthur Swain against John Barton Payne, director-general of railroads. This was an action brought against the Chicago and Alton during the time of government control, Mr. Swain alleging loss on a shipment of cattle from Chicago on account of railway negligence in transportation. The jury returned a verdict awarding Mr. Swain approximately $400, and the railroad appealed the case.

The appellate court reversed the finding of the Morgan county circuit court in the suit of Edward Goldstein against H. S. Greenstone. This proceeding grew out of differences between the complainant and the defendant over the purchase of the Emporium. It was the claim of Mr. Greenstone that the purchase price agreed upon did not include certain goods that had been shipped to the Emporium, and not paid for. Mr. Goldstein maintained that his purchase included these goods and after having made payment for them sought to recover by an action against Mr. Greenstone.

YEGGMEN BLOW SAFE AT BLUFFS POSTOFFICE

About $200 in Cash Secured by Safe Blowers Early Wednesday Morning—Tool House of Wabash Also Broken Into

Yeggmen blew the safe at the Bluffs postoffice at an early hour Wednesday morning and secured all the cash, probably amounting to $200.

The robbery was committed some time between 1:30 and 2:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and was not discovred until daylight. The yeggs used only one charge of some powerful explosive and gained entrance to the safe without difficulty. The safe was of the Debold type with double doors and both of these doors were blown completely off the hinges.

Prior to gaining entrance to the postoffice the robbers broke into the tool house of the Wabash railroad and there secured tools with which they forced open the door of the postoffice.

It is uncertain just how much money the safe contained, neither Postmaster Peter Burrus or his assistant, Miss Marie Thorne, being able to state the exact amount. However, the latter is of the opinion that at least $200 was in the safe when it was locked Tuesday night at the close of the day's business.

Athorities in this and other nearby towns and cities were notified of the theft early yesterday morning and are on the lookout for the yeggs. It is the belief of the Bluffs authorities that the robbry was the work of three men reported to have been seen in the east part of town early Wednesday morning. These men were seen by Jack Mains, who reported that he observed three strangers taking a drink from a well near the railroad in the east part of town.

Workmen at the Wabash round house reported that two strangers had been in that vicinity for a number of days past and had been regarded with some suspicion.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graubner have returned to their home in Chicago after a visit of several days with Mr. Graubner's parents and other relatives.

POSTOFFICE WELFARE COUNCIL MET TUESDAY

Rural Carriers Want More Favorable Working Conditions

The welfare council of the local post office held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Jan. 3, at 4.30 p. m. with all members present when Chairman John Kearns called the meeting to order.

Among matters discussed was an informal note from the rural carriers presented by Thad L. Wiseman calling to the inconvenient and otherwise unfavorable working conditions of the rural carriers, due to the fact that on account of the crowded condition of the postoffice it is necessary for them to work the mail in the storage and boiler room of the basement and requesting that the council take the matter up with the postal officials and that conditions be improved if possible.

It was the judgment of the council that the matter should receive favorable consideration, and the note was referred back to the rural carriers, the matter to be presented in a formal way at the next meeting of the council.

A suggestion of the chairman was approved by the council, providing that all communications presented for action of the welfare council should be typewritten and that there should be four copies made and signed by the employes of the branch of the service presenting the communication in order that one copy might be retained by the secretary of the branch presenting the matter, one copy by the secretary of the local council, one copy for the postmaster and one copy for the postal officials, to whom the matter should be presented.

James Magner, the supervisory representative, read from the Official Bulletin the Christmas message of Herbert Work, first assistant postmaster general, commending the postal employes for their efficient co-operation in handling the Christmas rush.

A resolution was passed by the unanimous vote of the council, thanking the postal department officials for their appreciation of effort and pledging hearty good wishes and best service for the new year.

DEALINGS IN STOCKS WERE EXTENSIVE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Uncertain tendencies prevailed in the stock market today altho prices strengthened in the afternoon in response to easy money and the support accorded selected issues, such as sugars, textiles, tobaccos and chain store and mail order specialties.

Dealings were extensive approximating 850,000 shares.

Sentiment continued to be swayed by the Chicago banking episode and the less favorable aspects of the industrial situation especially as affecting the automobile and allied trades.

General Motors was offered in single lots ranging up to 10,000 shares at the low record of 8⅞ but rallied with the general list in the short covering of the final hour. Directors of General Motors were in session long after the close of the market to consider action on the several dividends.

Motor accessories, especially rubbers, were under increased pressure in consequence of yesterday's ommission of the Kelly-Springfield stock dividend.

The money market again was the greatest source of encouragement to bullish initiative.

Call loans dropped from 5½ per cent to five per cent at mid-day and were liberally supplied at four per cent in the last half of the session.

Irregular conditions featured the moderately large dealings in bonds. Liberty issues showed trifling gains and losses and a similiar tone marked the trading in rails. Forecasts pointed to the successful flotation of the new $40,000,000 Dutch East Indies loan. Total sales (par value) aggregated $16,250,000.

PRICE OF WHEAT CLOSED STRONG

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Readiness with which all margin-calling was set today on 'change where even the amounts were excessive, had a decidedly stimulating effect on the grain markets here. Wheat closed strong 3 to 3⅞c net higher with May $1.11½ to $1.11⅞ and July $1.01 to $1.01½. Corn gained 1⅛ to 1⅝, oats ⅞c to 1c and provisions 2½ to 20c.

The fact that rumors of impending financial trouble for Board of Trade firms had in every instance failed to be substantiated and that ample funds were shown to be available led to general buying and a sharp buying and a sharp advance as soon as the wheat market opened. Belief appeared to be widespread that yesterday's selling was much overdone and as a consequence the pit today was at times almost bare of offerings.

Another bullish influence was gossip that export business on a liberal scale was in progress and that purchases for Europe during yesterday's depression amounted to 1,000,000 bushels. Absence of moisture in the dry sections of Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas together with unwelcomed rains in Argentina tended also to renew bullish sentiment. On the price bulges some heavy selling ascribed to eastern interests when countered but reactions that ensued were transient and the finish was near the top figures of the day.

Corn and oats advanced with wheat. Shipping demand for the feed grains appeared more active. On the other hand country offerings had been largely shut off by yesterday's break in prices. Notwithstanding irregularity in the hog market provisions reflected the upturn of grain values.

M. E. MINISTERS ARE HERE FOR CONFERENCE

Ministers and Laymen of District Meet in this City Wednesday —Bishop Nicholson of Chicago Was Night Speaker

A large number of ministers and laymen of the M. E. church, Jacksonville district, met in this city yesterday for a conference. The sessions were held at Centenary church, which was well filled with delegates and vistors.

The morning session opened with devotional exercises in the charge of Rev. Samuel Graves. The minister read a part of Paul's instructions to Timothy and afterward made brief comment on the passages read.

Rev. E. L. Pletcher, the district superintendent, then made several anonuncements and made a report of the work in the district during the year just closd. He stated that there were 507 conversions in the district during the year, and told of the dedication of two church basements during the period, one at Nilwood and the other at Curran. The speaker also refered to the excellent showing many of the smaller churches are making in a financial way.

Rev. J. A. Betcher of Ashland was the next speaker, his theme being, "Personal Religion" The need of a personal religious experience was emphasized, the minister declaring that it is the only way that the individual comes to a realization of what religon really means.

A plea for consecration to the cause of righteousness on the part of both ministeres and laymen was made by the next speaker, Rev. George Hayes. The next on the program was an address by Rev. A. L. Wood, the theme being "Life Service and Christian Training."

Afternoon Session

The afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock with devotionals in charge of Rev. Guy Dewhirst of Roodhouse. An address on "Stewardship—Its Total Meaning," was then delivered by Rev. C. D. Robertson, pastor of Centenary church. Another address was that of Rev. J. M. Armstrong of Greenfield, who spoke on "Missionary Education in the Sunday School and Epworth League."

Following these addresses the area team of Chicago took charge, addresses being made by Dr. C. S. Moore, Dr. Heigley and Dr. W C. Terrell. Dr. Heigley's address was on the topic, "America's Need and Our Reply" and dealt especially with the home missions problem. Dr. Terrell of East Africa spoke on "The Overseas Call to the Church." The address was primarily on Africa but included also some reference to the Mohammedan movement and other problems which are presented in the foreign missions field.

Paul Rugg, another member of the team, discussed "Religious Education," and following this address, Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Chicago made a half hour's talk. This excellent address completed the afternoon's program.

At 6 o'clock dinner was served in the dining room of the church and afterward, with C. W. Boston as toastmaster, a brief program was carried out. Hugh Green and A. C. Metcalf were among those who made brief talks, and Bishop Nicholson was also heard in a few remarks.

Bishop Nicholson Speaks

Adjournment was then taken to the auditorium where a number of pictures were shown. These included pictures taken by Rev. Mr. Pletcher, indicating work done locally and Mr. Rugg displayed a number of scenes from Mexico, India and Europe.

Rev. J. A. Betcher of Ashland was next heard in a very fine solo, after which Bishop Nicholson was introduced as the speaker of the evening. The address which Bishop Nicholson delivered was one prepared especialy for the occasion and was delivered in a very forceful way. Bishop Nicholson's theme was "World Problems of the Day and the Church's Reply," and he gave his auditors a new conception of the huge task which now confronts the church if it is to meet the world's need and fulfill its destiny.

Bishop Nicholson will leave this morning for Bloomington, accompanied by Dr. Harker, to attend the meeting of the Educational commission of the Methodist church. At this conference the educational problems of the Illinois and central Illinois conference will be considered in an exhaustive way. Other local men who will go to Bloomington tomorow will be Rev. E. L. Pletcher, Rev. G. W. Randle, J. J. Reeve and Albert C. Metcalf.

Many ambitious men and women live only half a life—and don't know it

No person whose nerves are continually irritated, whose appetite and digestion are disturbed, or who doesn't sleep well has more than half his normal chance for success in life. For weakness, debility, anemia and general lack of tone are a serious handicap to anybody.

Those who drink tea or coffee are often sufferers from these conditions. Tea and coffee contain caffeine, a substance which has a decided stimulant action on the nerves.

Each cup of strong coffee contains about as large a dose of caffeine as your doctor would ordinarily give to a very sick person.

You can readily see that the effect of giving this stimulant regularly to a well person might finally have a tendency to make him sick.

If you want to avoid a very common cause of irritation and enjoy restful sleep, good digestion, and the feeling of vigor and robust endurance that comes to healthy, normal people, quit tea and coffee, and drink Postum, instead. It is a rich, coffee-like cereal beverage—perfectly delicious!

Order Postum from your grocer today. Drink this fragrant, aromatic beverage and see how much better you'll feel—able to do more without becoming fatigued—as thousands have discovered for themselves.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold everywhere!
